2. DISCRETIONARY SELECTION CRITERIA

2.1. Provide rationale for utilizing discretionary selection:

The sport of Goalball is not a measured or timed event. In the event of selection of athletes who will compete together as a Team, it is impossible to make selection decisions based solely on objective criteria. USABA believes the selection criteria outlined below, which includes subjective components in the evaluation of performance and ability, will result in the selection of athletes to comprise the Team most capable of earning a gold medal at the 2020 Paralympic Games.

2.2. List the discretionary criteria and explain how they will be used:

In evaluating and selecting athletes, the following criteria will be considered:

- Physical Criteria:
 - Measurements from movement analysis (3DMAPS) on fundamental movement and chain reaction.
 - Results from Physical Testing:
 - Vertical Jump
 - Unilateral Long Jump
 - Kneeling med ball chest pass
 - 1minute Max Burpee
 - 1minute Max Push-up
 - 3 RM Back Squat
- Tactical Criteria:
 - Athlete statistics in the following areas will be collected and evaluated from video of training camps and tournament play:
 - Goals allowed
 - Blocking percentage (blocks/blocking opportunities)
 - Goals, scoring percentage (goals/total throws)
 - Penalties committed
 - Penalty shot block percentage
 - Penalty shot scoring percentage

- +/- (goals scored-goals)
- Psychological/Social Criteria:

These athlete traits are all evaluated to determine if a specific athlete can demonstrate the ability to succeed within the team philosophies, systems, concepts, and culture. All athletes in the National Team Player Pool are evaluated, both in and out of competition.

- TEAM PLAYER: Selfless in attitude towards team members both on & off the court. Will give everything for the success of their team-mates.
- ACCOUNTABILITY: On time to all events, turns in all required documents on time and in correct form. Demonstrates follow-through with coaches and teammates.
- GROWTH MINDSET: Open minded to new ideas and concepts
- WARRIOR MENTALITY: Copes with & bounces back from the lows of elite level sport, as well as remaining focused on the tasks still to be completed
- Thinks clearly under pressure
- SELF-REFLECTION: Demonstrates the ability to learn from previous experiences through self-reflection and self-awareness
- RESPECTFUL: On & off the field. On the field the athlete respects their opponents and respects the rules of the game. Athlete respects the competitor's code, to play with the desire, constructive attitude, and competitive spirit of the game of goalball. Athletes treat equipment, facilities, teammates, coaches, officials and all others with respect at all times. Leave meeting rooms, training venues, and other common areas better than they found it.
- INTEGRITY: The athlete attempts to do what's right no matter who's watching, even if the choice is unpopular or personally costly. The athlete does not engage in behavior that might cause division among players or staff. The athlete is mindful and cautious of remarks made to the media or others that may affect her teammates or the team overall.
- LEADERSHIP: Athletes positively influence their teammates, making them better and more productive.
- COACHABLE: The athlete should be open and embracing of new ideas as well as criticism. They are committed to placing the team's needs above her own and therefore selections will be made with the team's best interest in mind. The team comes first.

- 2.3. Provide the name of the committee that will be responsible for making discretionary selections, along with a complete list of the members' titles currently serving on the committee:

- At minimum, 20% Athlete Representative

- 2.4. Specify the process that will be used to identify and handle any potential conflicts of interest involving a member of the committee:

Any member of the selection committee that has a possible conflict of interest must disclose it. If such conflict exists, the selection committee member must recuse him/herself from committee discussions and voting. Further, the committee member should not otherwise influence other members of the committee in the selection process. However, a committee member who recused him/herself, but who has relevant and necessary information with respect to athlete performance, for example a national team coach or high performance director, may, if requested by the selection committee, provide such information to the committee so long as such information is provided in a fair and unbiased manner and the committee member who declared the conflict of interest does not vote toward the final decision.
