

Blind Athletes Inc is proud to join forces with the United States Association of Blind Athletes for the 2nd Annual National Blind Sports Day and Adaptive Sports Event

National Blind Sports Day is a celebration across the U.S. showcasing the abilities, opportunities and awareness of sports for the blind. This year's event here in central NJ is a coordinated effort between Rutgers University Department of Kinesiology and Health, Cook Student Center, Recreation, Blind Athletes Inc and the Center for Disability, Wellness and Health.

National Blind Sports Day and Adaptive Sports Event

Date: October 4, 2019

Place: Cook Student Center at Rutgers University

Time: 4 PM until 8 PM

50 Biel Road, New Brunswick, NJ 08901
(parking and an Access Link location are available)

Attendees will have the opportunity to learn firsthand about blind and adaptive sports and fitness activities geared towards individuals with disabilities and take part in instructions and demonstrations. This event is open to all with or without a disability to participate and to try out equipment used by individuals with disabilities in sports and recreation activities.

If you would like to participate in this event simply click the following link to register and fill out the event form: NBSD Registration The registration will end at 11:59 p.m. on Monday, September 30th, 2019. If you have any questions, email Coach Jennifer Demby at jennifer@blindathletes.org or call 678-362-4560.

Come and join the fun!